KILLINGTON MUSIC FESTIVAL

2021 RESIDENCY June 26 – July 23
STRINGS • WINDS • PIANO • GUITAR

performance opportunities
masterclasses
lessons • coachings

DANIEL ANDAI, Artistic Director

Make music in the mountains

kmfest.org  kmfest@kmfest.org  I 802.773.4003
Addendum: For faculty roster, application, enrollment and program details, please visit us online.

The Killington Music Festival brings together young musicians and a world renowned faculty in a residency program of chamber music study, masterclasses and frequent performances. With the beauty of the Green Mountains as a backdrop, the limited enrollment, personal attention and collegial atmosphere, KMF 2021 could be the musical experience of your lifetime.

Who attends?
High school, college and graduate students, pre-formed ensembles, as well as young professionals who want to learn in our unique environment.

Student life
In addition to the practice and study schedule, the Festival staff organizes a wide variety of activities, including hikes, visiting beautiful Vermont scenic attractions, informal team sports and movie outings. Housing is in the greater Killington resort area, in lodges that feature swimming pools and other facilities.

Curriculum
KMF 2021 marks 39 years of inspired chamber music performances in the heart of Vermont’s gorgeous Green Mountains. Considered the essence of collaborative musical partnership, chamber music develops crucial skills required of every well-rounded musician. It is KMF’s belief that cultivating these skills in various forms maximizes the musician’s overall music-making experience. The festival offers a curriculum that unites the different facets of chamber music. Resident Artists will work with KMF’s guest artists and esteemed faculty, hailing from many of the country’s most prestigious universities and conservatories, through private lessons, small ensemble coachings, studio classes, masterclasses, in addition to having performance opportunities. The supportive environment at KMF encourages active cooperation and the open exchange of musical ideas.

Dates & admission
New and returning students must complete an application form and submit it with a non-refundable application fee by March 1, 2021. Applications received after March 1st will be considered on a space-available basis. Please see our website for application, admission requirements, online and live audition opportunities.

Tuition
$4,195* + $75 application fee ($85 online)
Tuition includes room and board, lessons, coachings, masterclasses, performances on and off campus, full access to all festival faculty concerts, lectures, events and KMF’s music library. 24-hour supervision is provided for students ages 12-17.

* Piano students will be charged an additional cartage and tuning fee of $250. Lodging security deposit additional.

KMF brings together talented young musicians and some of the world’s most sought-after teachers to Vermont’s beautiful Green Mountains.

Guest Artist & Acclaimed Pianist
SIMON GHRAICHY
kmfest.org  kmfest@kmfest.org I 802.773.4003
For faculty roster, application, enrollment and program details, please visit us online.
The Killington Music Festival brings together young musicians and a world renowned faculty in a residency program of chamber music study, masterclasses and frequent performances. With the beauty of the Green Mountains as a backdrop, the limited enrollment, personal attention and collegial atmosphere, KMF 2021 could be the musical experience of your lifetime.

STRINGS • WINDS • PIANO • GUITAR | 4-WEEK SUMMER RESIDENCY

Who attends?
High school, college and graduate students, pre-formed ensembles, as well as young professionals who want to learn in our unique environment.

Student life
In addition to the practice and study schedule, the Festival staff organizes a wide variety of activities, including hikes, visiting beautiful Vermont scenic attractions, informal team sports and movie outings. Housing is in the greater Killington resort area, in lodges that feature swimming pools and other facilities.

Curriculum
KMF 2021 marks 39 years of inspired chamber music performances in the heart of Vermont’s gorgeous Green Mountains. Considered the essence of collaborative musical partnership, chamber music develops crucial skills required of every well-rounded musician. It is KMF’s belief that cultivating these skills in various forms maximizes the musician’s overall music-making experience.

The festival offers a curriculum that unites the different facets of chamber music. Resident Artists will work with KMF’s guest artists and esteemed faculty, hailing from many of the country’s most prestigious universities and conservatories, through private lessons, small ensemble coachings, studio classes, masterclasses, in addition to having performance opportunities. The supportive environment at KMF encourages active cooperation and the open exchange of musical ideas.

Dates & admission
New and returning students must complete an application form and submit it with a non-refundable application fee by March 1, 2021. Applications received after March 1st will be considered on a space-available basis. Please see our website for application, admission requirements, online and live audition opportunities.

Tuition
$4,195* + $75 application fee ($85 online)
Tuition includes room and board, lessons, coachings, masterclasses, performances on and off campus, full access to all festival faculty concerts, lectures, events and KMF’s music library. 24-hour supervision is provided for students ages 12-17.

* Piano students will be charged an additional cartage and tuning fee of $250. Lodging security deposit additional.